PETITION FOR REVIVAL UNDER 37 CFR §137(A)

Sir:

The above-identified application became abandoned for failure to file a timely and proper response to Notification of Missing Requirement under 35 U.S.C. §371 dated September 11, 2001 and setting forth a two-month period for response. The date of abandonment of this application is November 11, 2001.

Applicant hereby petitions for revival of this application.

1. The Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge the petition fee in the amount of $55.00 (37 CFR §1.17(e)). Applicant claims small entity status.

2. The reply to the Notice of Missing Requirements was filed on January 17, 2002 (copy enclosed).

3. Since this utility application was filed after June 8, 1995, no terminal disclaimer is required.

4. An adequate showing of the cause of the delay and that of the entire delay in filing the response from the due date for the reply until filing of a grantable petition under 37 C.F.R. §1.137 (a) was unavoidable, is enclosed.

Respectfully submitted,

David Toren

ATTACHMENT TO THE PETITION FOR REVIVAL
UNDER 37 C.F.R. §137(a) SHOWING CAUSE OF THE DELAY

The Notice of Missing Requirements, which is dated September 11, 2001, was received in the office of the attorneys for this application (which was previously located at One World Trade Center) with a delay in October, 2001 because of the tragic event of September 11, 2001.

According to Paul Scott, the attorney who handled this case (Paul Scott left the firm, and his present address is unknown), in response to his call to the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, he was advised that a new Notice of Missing Requirements would be sent and was further advised, during his subsequent conversation with Robert Bahr, Esq., that a response can be filed with a copy of the original notice and that the required extension fees would be waived (please see computer print-out for this file (enclosed herewith), the highlighted paragraph summarizing the content of the calls. A response was filed on January 17, 2002 (please see printout). Also enclosed is a copy of a page from the log book for January 17, 2002 showing that the response was filed.

Respectfully submitted
